

Premises Cases

A settlement was achieved of $195,000.00 for a young woman who tripped and fell on defective stairs at the two family home where she lived and fractured her ankle.

A settlement of $283,000.00 was achieved for a middle aged man who slipped and fell on snow and ice in the parking lot of a major museum. As a result of the accident he suffered a tri-malleolar fracture which required surgery.

A settlement of $180,000.00 was achieved for a woman who slipped and fell on ice on the walkway outside her apartment building which was part of a large Manhattan apartment complex. As a result of the fall the women suffered a bimalleolar fracture which required surgery.